

Wade Broadhead Planning & Zoning Director

600 West 3rd St | Florence, CO 81226 | 719-784-4848 | wbroadhead@florencecolorado.org |

Wade Broadhead is the Planning Director of Florence. He works on land development, zoning, local grants, transportation and historic preservation issues. He was most recently a Land Use Planner and Staff to the City of Pueblo's Historic Preservation Commission where he worked from 2005-2014 after career as an archaeologist and GIS specialist in the Denver metro area. In Pueblo, Wade helped spearhead an engaging neighborhood-based historic context approach which surveyed most historic neighborhoods as well as its Post-War Resources which won the Governor's award in 2013.

Wade has a passion for community planning and Mid-Century Modern Architecture and social history as well as citizen engagement and working with youth. A native of Suburban Chicago, Wade graduated from Western State College of Colorado (now Western State Colorado University).